

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Looking for Mr. Right?

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about friendships and relationships.
- I can show I understand someone's feelings.
- I can talk about wishes and imaginary situations.

Ask your partner:

- How do you feel when you go out with new people?
- How will you know when you meet the perfect person for you?

Let's Explore!

Would Sally or Vanessa consider marriage?

* When you "consider" something, you think it over for a while before you decide.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Here you are. Teacakes!

Sally: Hmm. Comfort food! What would I do if I didn't know you?

Vanessa: If we didn't know each other, we wouldn't have anyone to work out our problems with. I was relieved when we got on with each other.

Sally: Me too. Not having friends in a new place must be distressing!

Vanessa: Hmmm. I wish I could look into the future! I'd like to see where I might be in a few years!

Sally: Would you want to get married if you met Mr. Right?

Vanessa: You mean if I fell for someone who I could actually tolerate?

Sally: When I think about moving in with someone I get nervous. I must be scared deep down!

Vanessa: I wish I knew that the next relationship wouldn't be as disappointing as the last one.

Sally: Marco. He could be challenging to say the least. It must be frustrating to be in a relationship like that.

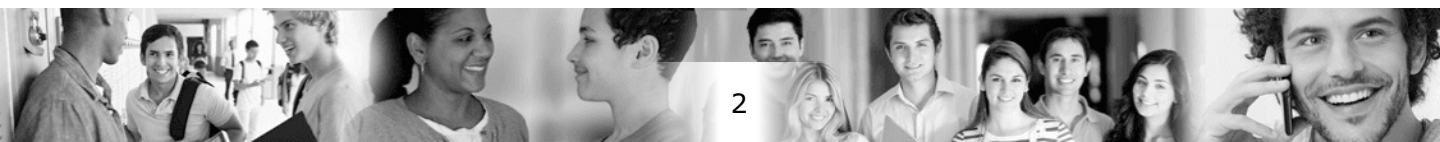

Vanessa: I was often astounded by his behavior.

Sally: If I found someone I got along well with in the future, I might consider marriage. Like you, I wish I knew where I would be and what I'd be doing. I could be anywhere!

Vanessa: Me too.

Sally: OK. Another movie?

Vanessa: Yesssss.

Let's Practice!

What was it like for Vanessa to be in a new city alone?

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. What sentences show you understand someone's situation?
 - a) I was relieved when we got on with each other.
 - b) Not having friends in a new place must be distressing!
 - c) I must be scared deep down!
 - d) It wouldn't be as disappointing as the last one.
 - e) He could be challenging to say the least.
 - f) It must be frustrating to be in a relationship like that.
 - g) I was often astounded by his behavior.

Let's Practice!

Things would be different if Sally and Vanessa didn't know each other!

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistakes. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. What would I do if I didn't knew you?

2. If we didn't know each other, we wouldn't had anyone to wok out our problems with.

3. I wish I could looked into the future! I'd like to see where I migth be in a few years!

4. I wish I know that the next relashionship wouldn't be as disappointing as the last one.

5. If I faund someone I got alone well with in the future, I might consider marriage.

Extension Activity

Talk about feeling and situations.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Identify some words that you can use as -ed or -ing adjectives.
- Use the adjectives to describe situations and feels.
- Write down 5 sentences for situations and 5 sentences for feelings.
- Be imaginative with your ideas.
- Read the sentences to a partner. Ask them what they would do if this happened to them or if they felt like this.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I use words that describe situations and feelings.

☐ ☐

I share the situations with a partner.

☐ ☐

I ask my partner to describe what they would do if they were in this situation or felt like this.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to work out (verb): to solve
e.g. You always help me work out my problems.
- teacake (noun): a sweet bun made with candied fruit and raisins e.g. Teacakes are great for a snack!
- to get on with (verb): to be compatible; to be like-minded e.g. I'm glad we got on well with each other!
- relieved (adjective): happy something bad has not happened
e.g. I was relieved when we got on!
- comfort food (noun): the type of food you eat when you are sad or upset e.g. When I'm feeling sick I prefer my favorite comfort foods.
- Mr. Right (expression): the perfect man for you e.g. Will I ever meet Mr. Right?
- to tolerate (verb): to accept behavior that is not like your own e.g. Someday, I may meet someone I can actually tolerate.
- disappointing (adjective): not as good as you hoped for e.g. The film was really disappointing!
- challenging (adjective): difficult to deal with e.g. He is a challenging person to get along with!

Learning Points

Showing That You Understand Someone's Feelings

You use a modal like must, would, or could followed by an adjective when you want to empathize with someone. When you empathize with someone, you show them that you understand their situation or feelings.

To talk about situations, use the -ing form of the adjective.

To talk about feelings use the -ed form of the adjective.

Here is the structure to follow:

subject + modal + verb + adjective

He could be challenging to say the least. (challenging situation)

I must be scared deep down! (feel scared)

Don't forget to include the verb before the adjective.

Examples:

- Not having friends in a new place must be distressing!
- I hoped it wouldn't be disappointing like my last relationship!

Talking about Wishes and Imaginary Situations

You use wish and the second conditional to talk about imaginary situations in the present or future.

Wishes and sentences in the second conditional infer that what you want is probably not possible, or for some reason impossible.

Question	Statement
What would I do if I didn't know you?	I don't know what I'd do if I didn't know you.
How would we work out our problems if we didn't know each other?	If we didn't know each other, we wouldn't have anyone to work out our problems with.
Might you consider marriage if you found someone you got along well with in the future?	If I found someone I got along well with in the future, I might consider marriage.

